

Matthew Turner Speaking / Consultancy Rate Sheet (2017)

As a true storyteller at heart, I love to speak and share what I have learned with an eager crowd. Be this through a talk, interactive workshop, or in a one-on-one environment, I bring a certain flair to your Conference, Event, Business, or Educational Institution. I tailor each event I do around you and your audience, so you may rest in the knowledge that what you get is a unique experience.

2017 Topics:

Ideal Audience:

The Successful Mistake (how to turn failure into success, and how to overcome adversity).

Designed for new entrepreneurs, entrepreneurs-to-be, and those studying enterprise & business.

The Entrepreneurial Mindset (how to develop powerful habits and a successful mindset).

Designed for six-figure business owners, and executives climbing the leadership ladder.

Intrepreneurship (how to embrace this as a business, and how to get your staff on board).

Designed for forward-thinking business building a culture for millennials (and generation X and Y).

Employability 2.0 (how to today's youth can embrace tomorrow's ever-changing workplace).

Designed for universities and colleges, and their employability programs / student engagement.

Personal Development in The Workplace (how to develop the right right mindset, no matter what your role for experience).

Designed for workplace development, and helping your staff deal with stress and adversity.

Rates:

Because I tailor each engagement around you and your audience, I have no 'out-of-the-box' rate. I prefer to speak to you in person (either over the phone or over coffee), and learn more about how I can specifically help you. But to give you an idea of my rates, keep the following in mind:

- Half Day Speaking starts at £197 (2-4 hours)
- Full Day Speaking starts at £397 (5-10 hours)
- Half Day Consultancy starts at £297 (2-4 hours)
- Full Day Consultancy starts at £497(5-10 hours)

consultancy includes in-depth training, one-on-one work, and activities that go beyond a standard workshop.

These rates do not include travel or business expenses, which I expect to recoup if I travel outside of West Yorkshire. Above all, I would love to speak to you and learn more about your expectations. My initial introductory call is free, so please arrange this via the link below.
